

Accept the values—car model year, number of car accidents, if the car has premium options and the MSRP of the car. Calculate how old the car is, use the required “if” statements according to the given conditions. Use flag variables for conditions outside the given circumstance. Use the given function to print the eligible/ineligible messages